Subject: Joshua Cold Sore Remedy is a Godsend!

Dear Joshua:

Miraculous is the word that best describes your marvelous remedy for cold sores. I interview and photograph celebrities and had a very important function to attend where Gloria Estefan, Andy Garcia and many numerous stars were to be in attendance. Of course, as luck would have it, I felt the twinges of a cold sore coming on days prior to the gala and instantly stressed out - only making the breakout worse. Nothing off the counter at the pharmacy helped and my medical doctor was at a loss to prescribe anything that made a difference. In desperation I searched the internet and discovered your site. I ordered and ripped open the package the minute it arrived two days before the big party. The solution's effect was immediate.

The burning, tingling sensation went away instantly and emotionally, I started to calm down. By evening, the cold sore (which had been the mother of all cold sores) was half the size and by the following day it was gone completely. Never in my life have I ever been able to get rid of those dastardly things in less than a few weeks. By the day of the event, I put on my party dress and my favorite lipstick and no one was the wiser! I was able to flash my pearly whites at the one-on-one interviews with the stars without that cold sore in attendance! Thank you so much . . . I'm telling everyone I know about the Joshua Solution. My husband and three children also think the Joshua solution is "the bomb" so I've already ordered another supply, just in case! Thanks again . . .

Sincerely in your debt,
